PLEASE NOTE THAT YOU CAN REGISTER AS NON-ATTENDING FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR 2022–2023 ONLY ON THE FOLLOWING LEGAL GROUNDS:

Completion of military service or civilian service, maternity leave, paternity leave or parental leave or if you are unable to begin your studies due to illness or disability. Neglect of registration will lead to losing your study entitlement (study right). (Act on Universities of Applied Sciences / Ammattikorkeakoululaki 32 §.) The documents proving the legal grounds for your non-attendance must be submitted to Diak's Admission Services by 15 July 2022 at 3pm at the latest. In case you have not submitted the documents by the deadline, you will be registered as attending for the academic year.

BEFORE REGISTERING AS A NON-ATTENDING STUDENT, PLEASE CONSIDER THE FOLLOWING:

- Your study entitlement is not valid during your non-attendance.
- The period of non-attendance will not be counted towards the duration of your study.
- Diak cannot guarantee that the same study modules will still be available after your absence.
- You are not entitled to student financial aid during a period of non-attendance.
- You are not entitled to a student card or the year stamp during your non-attendance. You are also not entitled to meal discounts, travel discounts or other student benefits.
